

Ironie -- Alanis Morissette

From Jagged Little Pill (1995). About 116 BPM, est.

Bass: Harley Benton P/J, 5-string, passive. GP-5 only.

Light and supportive in the verses, then big, gritty, and driving in the choruses. That's classic mid-90s alt-rock dynamics.

Built from the song's overall sound. I haven't verified the exact bass rig on the record.

Fingers for the verses. Dig in harder, or switch to a pick, for the choruses. Both pickups up. Tone knob around 55%.

AMP: Classic Bass (Ampeg SVT) + CAB: Apg810 IR (User IR 3)

SVT into an 8x10 is the 90s alt-rock bass standard. It takes Bass OD well for the chorus.

CTL footswitch

On CTL: DST (Bass OD).

- CTL off -- Verses. Clean, light, supportive. This is the resting state the patch loads into.
- CTL on -- Choruses. A gritty, driving 90s bass wall.

Stomp with the guitarist at each chorus.
