

Werewolves of London (Rhythm Guitar) -- Warren Zevon

From Excitable Boy (1978). About 104 BPM, est.

A piano-driven mid-tempo stomp. The D-C-G riff lives in the piano. On guitar, you double that riff with a warm, slightly gritty 70s tone and step out for the solo.

Built from the song's overall sound. I haven't verified the exact guitars and amps on the record.

Instrument: Stratocaster (HSS). Position 2 (bridge+middle) for the riff. Bridge humbucker for the solo.

GP-5 only, Stratocaster (HSS), no pedalboard.

AMP: Bellman 59N (Bassman Normal) + CAB: EVM112 IR (User IR 5)

A '59 Bassman normal channel is warm and round with gentle breakup. That's 70s LA studio rock, and it sits under the piano instead of fighting it.

EVM112 is the loaded guitar cab with a flat, hi-fi response. It keeps Nashville clean tones honest and doesn't add V30 honk.

Module chain

NR -- Gate, always on.

THRE: 18.

Catches hum.

PRE -- off. No compressor. 70s rock rhythm breathes.

DST -- Green OD (TS-808), on CTL.

Gain: 38, Tone: 55, VOL: 68.

Pushes the Bassman into a singing 70s lead for the solo.

AMP -- Bellman 59N, always on.

Gain: 42, PRES: 50, VOL: 62, Bass: 45, Middle: 58, Treble: 52.

Gain 42 is warm, gentle grit. Middle 58 gives the riff body. Bass 45 stays out of the piano's left hand.

CAB -- User IR 5 (EVM112), always on.

VOL: 60.

EQ -- Guitar EQ 2, always on.

100Hz: -3, 500Hz: 0, 1kHz: +1, 3kHz: 0, 6kHz: -2, VOL: 50.

The low cut is essential with piano. The top is trimmed.

MOD -- off.

DLY -- Analog, on CTL.

Mix: 14, Time: 290ms, F.Back: 18, Trail: on.

A short 70s tail for the solo.

RVB -- Room, always on.

Mix: 14, Decay: 30, Trail: on.

A small studio room.

CTL footswitch

On CTL: DST (Green OD), DLY (Analog).

- CTL off -- Rhythm. A warm, gritty Bassman doubling the piano riff and the chord stabs. This is the resting state the patch loads into.
- CTL on -- Lead. Green OD plus a short analog tail for the solo.

Engage CTL for the solo. Off for the riff. Howl optional.
